Foreword

We, the Senior Class of 1960, have chosen "Sentimental Journey" as the theme for The Follies of 1960. We feel our high school days are a journey on which we see and participate in activities that someday will be of sentimental value to us. Our high school days have been one journey that has had an enormous amount of influence on our present and future lives. They have molded our personalities, characters, and attitudes into what we wanted to make of ourselves. We would like to help you relive this past year; therefore, the Class of 1960 of Auburn High School, where we spent the time of our lives working and playing each day of the school year, cordially invites you to go on a "Sentimental Journey" in words and pictures.

ADMINISTRATION

THE AUBURN BOARD OF EDUCATION

PRESIDENT FORD WALTER

This is Mr. Ford Walter's first year as president of the Auburn Board of School Trustees. Previously he served as secretary of the board for two years. During the school year, Mr. Walter and the rest of the board have been responsible for the construction of a band room, a shop, and classrooms at the high school. Under his able direction, the school board has helped greatly toward improving the Auburn school system.

SECRETARY N. E. YODER

Mr. N. E. Yoder held the position of secretary of the Auburn Board of School Trustees this past year. He has served as president of the board for two years and also as secretary for one year. This year, Mr. Yoder's duties have been recording and keeping a record of all transactions and correspondence of the school board. He has proved to be a very efficient worker in this position.

TREASURER A. B. LITTLETON

Mr. A. B. Littleton has served in the position of treasurer of the Auburn Board of School Trustees for the past five years. He has shown his superior ability in keeping the budget balanced during the construction at the high school. Mr. Littleton resigned from the school board on February 1, 1960, because he would no longer reside in Auburn due to a change in location of his work. His efforts during the past year have been greatly appreciated.

TREASURER L. L. WIBLE

Mr. L. L. Wible accepted the responsibilities as treasurer of the Auburn Board of School Trustees upon the resignation of Mr. Littleton. His main duty during the remainder of the year was to manage the board's finances. In the future Mr. Wible and the rest of the board plan to supervise the construction of a new elementary school. His efficient work has shown his superior ability.

THE ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT ROSS F. TIPTON

Mr. Ross F. Tipton has served as superintendent of the Auburn School System for the past two years. During the past school year Mr. Tipton and members of the school board approved the construction and furnishing of a new band room, shop, and three class rooms at the Auburn High School. They have also approved plans for the construction of a new elementary school in the near future. Mr. Tipton has undertaken many projects to improve the entire school system. His warm personality has made him well-liked by the entire student body.

PRINCIPAL LLOYD W. MILLER

Mr. L. W. Miller has been principal of Auburn High School since January 1, 1937. As this school year ends, he will be well into his twenty-fourth year of excellent service. Not only does Mr. Miller teach guidance, but also he supervises and sponsors extracurricular activities. He is sponsor of the annual and the school athletic director; and he countersigns all checks for the various school organizations. His willingness to help others with their problems is only one of the many reasons that he is so well-liked.

MRS. CARMA-JEAN ECKERT

Mrs. Carma-Jean Eckert has worked for the Auburn school system since the fall of 1946. She has been receptionist and secretary both for Mr. H. L. McKenney, who retired two years ago as superintendent of the Auburn schools, and for Mr. Ross Tipton, the present superintendent. Mrs. Eckert does the typing, general office work, and bookkeeping for all five schools in the Auburn school system. One of her many jobs is making out the paychecks for all the teachers. Mrs. Eckert also does some work for the Auburn School Board. Her willingness to help others makes her popular among students.

MISS ROSE MARIE OPENLANDER

Miss Rose Marie Openlander has been a familiar figure around Auburn High School since she started working as Mr. Miller's secretary and receptionist after her graduation from Auburn High School in 1935. In addition to her regular secretarial work, Rose helps with various projects. One of these projects is selling and accounting for all the tickets sold at the basketball and football games. She also takes care of the book rental. Her friendly personality makes Rose well-liked by all who know her.

SENIOR PROPHECY

We see Kalene Axtell's smiling face
Advertising Strohs on a billboard space.

Neung Gi Bak, we all agree,
Is now racing a new M. G.

Under the ground lies Fred Barkey;
He gave the cops to much milarky.

The last we heard from Sue Bashore,
She was a part owner in a liquor store.

Larry Beuret, who was a brain,
Is now an engineer on a train.

An important job has Kathy Boger;
She is now chief clerk for Kroger.

Carolyn Boren, we're happy to say,
Has just gotten married this very day.

South of the border down Mexico way
You find Sharon Bowerman dancing ballet.

Dave Brandon, we have learned,
Is a fireman who got burned.

In the circus is Tim Brown;
You guessed it, a clown.

Sitting in the brig is Malinda Burns;
She was caught making too many U turns.

Jayne Bussell is still going strong
As a writer of popular songs.

Ken Buttermore now has a plane;
He flies through the country making rain.

In business is Dale Cochard
Making dough as a Wall Street broker.

Cora Cochran is no more
For through a red stoplight she tore.

Joyce Coe is a singer yet;
She's now soprano for the "Met."

Bob Conner, I'm sorry to say,
Has more bills than he can pay.

Karen Cornelius, the last we heard,
Was running a home for wingless birds.

Diane Cripe will be married soon;
She's been waiting for many a moon.

Steve Davidson, we have seen,
Is living it up in New Orleans.

For Sandy Doden school isn't through;
She's now the president of Podunk U.

Marsha Elsner's been married for years,
And she's washing diapers up to her ears.

Dee Engstrom's a successful girl;
She is married to an Earl.

Dave Ennis is over the hurdles;
He's now making plastic girdles.

Larry Essley is doing well;
What it is we just can't tell.

Judy Favinger has the best job yet;
She has a shop that sells used pets.

Jon Feagler hasn't gone too far
As photographer for the Evening Star.

Sandi Ford is doing well now;
She has three pigs and one cow.

The great hunter is Marsha Fox;
She has killed a mighty ox.

Jewell Frazier has done well by far
As marriage counselor for the Evening Star.

Mike Frownfelter has put up shop;
He now owns the Tip Top.

Joe Garceau is making rhymes
As poetry editor of the New York Times.

Sandra Goodwin is a southern belle;
She struck it rich with an oil well.

Up for murder is Sandy Grant;
She has killed a little ant.

Joyce Grosh is where she wanted to be;
She's now known as a V. I. P.

Carol Hardy is flying high
As a maker of glass eyes.

Harve Harris is in a mess;
He was caught setting fire to A. H. S.

For Bill Hefley's business is ripping;
He makes his money honey dripping.

Jim Heller, we have heard,
Has — how do you say it? — gone to the birds.

Charley Hillman never sees a tree
As test driver for G. M. C.

Cindy Hood, we all agree
Is a test driver for G. M. C.

Janet Hoodelmier is still on the trail;
She never yet has found a male.

Baseball's the game for Laurie Hunter;
She is the American League's leading bunter.

The Kessler twins, John and Joe,
Are running a dairy in Kokomo.

SENIOR PROPHECY

Jane Kessler, we're glad to say,
Makes her living pitching hay.

Shirley Kettles is where she can do no harm;
She's in a cell at the county farm.

Nancy Kleeman really gets around;
On T. V. she's known as Huckleberry Hound.

Roger Krontz has struck it rich
As salesman for Abercombe and Fitch.

Margaret Kruse hasn't any cares;
It seems she's become a millionaire.

Good at art was Bill Kruse;
Till he drew a knife and got the noose.

The last we heard from Charley Lange
He was head of the Sing Sing gang.

Flying high is Janet Manon;
She is shot out of a cannon.

Mary Ellen McCarthy is known throughout the land;
She didn't get famous hauling sand.

Gladys Miller is knocking on Congress' door
To see if they'll let her sweep the floor.

Charley Mitchell has really made hay
As national president of the A. A. A.

Dick Moore hit the skids;
Now he's got twenty-three kids.

Making millions is Bonnie Muhn;
She now croons many a hit tune.

Sue Myers really gets around
As the star guard of the Cleveland Browns.

Diane Olson is not so jolly
After being editor of the Follies.

Marsha Osmun, we're sorry to say,
Is making a living on the runway.

Nancy Patrick, from the last report,
Is working on a plan to make tall people short.

John Pinnington now gets big checks
As chief designer for Playtex.

Jane Platter is sort of weird;
Now she's started growing a beard.

Carol Rediger has achieved her goal;
She's selling ice cream at the South Pole.

Jerry Reynolds is quite the thing,
He has replaced a Crosby named Bing.

Success at last found Larry Roop,
Cub reporter for the Daily Snoop.

Working in a restaurant is Mary Shook;
No, she isn't the chief cook.

They finally got Walt St. Clair;
He ended his days in the electric chair.

In pro football was Ned Short
Until he took too many a snort.

In the circus is Tom Slick;
His pet flea can do most tricks.

Jo Ann Sockrider has got it soft;
She and her hubby live in a hayloft.

Bob and Tom, the Souder boys,
Made a fortune in tinkertoys.

Roger Souder has left the region,
And now commands the foreign legion.

Donna Sproat is known to one and all;
She's the one who runs the city hall.

Rita Strock needs police protection;
She's the one who takes the tax collection.

Ron Thomas can take a vacation;
He now owns a chain of filling stations.

Jeanette Thorpe is making drugs
After washing root beer mugs.

Nancy Tuttle's a long way from home;
She runs a store in the city of Rome.

From Susan Van Horne we've heard no reply;
From the seventh floor she tried to fly.

For Cindy Walter it's nothing but ham;
She's a meat grader for Uncle Sam.

Tom Walter, may he rest in peace,
Hit a tree while heading east.

Janet Walters was the teacher's pet;
Trouble is, she still is yet.

Warren Wiedenhoef, we were surprised to see,
Is going to school for his Ph.D.

He made his fortune, did Ken Wiley;
He now is leading the "Life of Riley."

Cassy Winebrenner became a nurse
Until they took her patient away in a hearse.

Charley Witham sounds really grand
Playing the organ in his band.

Kenny Wolfe has quite a life;
Fourteen kids and only one wife.

Class of 1960

"Evening shadows make us blue; when each weary day is through, how we long to be with you. Every day we reminisce thinking of the kids we'll miss in our senior class."

As we, the members of the Class of 1960, come to the end of our high school days, we will have many good times and accomplishments to look back on. Who could forget our first days at Auburn High School, the B team tourney we won, an unforgettable junior-senior banquet, and the many activities of our senior year — aptitude tests, the trip to Indianapolis, our Homecoming, and a variety of others. Long after graduation we shall be remembering our senior year.

Our class president, Harve Harris, along with John Pinnington, vice-president; Sandra Ford, secretary; and Ned Short, treasurer, led their class to the end of a successful year. The class sponsor was Mrs. Frank Weathers. Mrs. Richard Davidson and Mrs. Max Stanley Brown served as class mothers.

Those students showing the highest scholastic ability were Lawrence Beuret, Sandra Doden, Charles Lange, and Jayne Bussell.

The highlight of our fall activities was the second annual Homecoming. Bonnie Muhn reigned as queen over the festivities with Dee Engstrom and Sandra Goodwin as senior attendants.

Sandra Goodwin and Bonnie Muhn were chosen as cheerleaders for our sports events.

The student body elected Ned Short as president of the Auburn Athletic Association and Thomas Slick as secretary. Those who toiled on the gridiron were: Timothy Brown, Dale Cochard, Jon Feagler, Michael Frownfelter, Joseph Garceau, Richard Moore, and Ned Short. Senior awards for basketball were given to: Dale Cochard, Steven Davidson, Jon Feagler, Richard Moore, Ned Short, Thomas Slick, and Roger Souder. Trackmen were: Timothy Brown, Dale Cochard, Jon Feagler, Michael Frownfelter, Joseph Garceau, John Pinnington, and Roger Souder.

Class of 1961

"We've been working for the junior class every single day. We've been working for the junior class for the banquet we must pay."

"Help the juniors!" was a familiar cry heard throughout the year from the class members. The juniors industriously sold refreshments at the football games, tickets for their fair project, Christmas cards, and pen sets. The climax of the year was the annual junior-senior banquet held at Cutter's Chalet in Fort Wayne on May 28.

The leadership of the class was bestowed upon Donald Steininger, president; Thomas Smith, vice-president; Judith Kay Miller, secretary; and Diane Davis, treasurer. Their newly elected sponsor was Mr. Phil Howard. Mrs. George McKinley and Mrs. Arnold Littleton were chosen as class mothers.

The honor students were: Thomas Smith, Philip Trippel, Judith Kay Miller, Joseph Drerup, Marie Johnson, Judith Kruse, and Diana McNece.

Connie McCann represented her class as both cheerleader and Homecoming attendant.

Those who showed their skill in football were: David Aschleman, David Bard, Wendell Lee Emerson, John Gaskill, Stanley Knisely, Donald Lemish, James Reas, John Shoudel, Thomas Smith, Donald Steininger, Ronald Tarlton, and Kim Webb.

John Gaskill, Robert King, Michael McKinley, Thomas Smith, and Stephen Wildermuth pounded the hardwood during the basketball season.

Class of 1962

"Dance if you want to dance, sing if you want to sing, for we shall see what the future will bring. Our class is young and our class is gay, and the years will soon fly away."

The sophomore class has enjoyed its year of leisure and is now ready, willing, and able to assume the tasks of the junior class. Its year has been filled with hours of Shakespearian drama and geometrical principles. "Parlezvous francais" and "Veni, vidi, vici" were familiar phrases used by the foreign language students. The class members got into the swing of things by purchasing class rings and black sweaters.

The executives of the class were Paul Carper, president; Charles Hoover, vice-president; Barbara Snapp, secretary; and Sheryl Brown, treasurer. Mr. Charles Johnson was chosen to sponsor the class. Mrs. Glen Culbertson and Mrs. Woodrow Martin were the class mothers.

Those who led their class scholastically were: Gary Dunn, James Norford, Warren Sunday, and Marcia Tucker.

Something new for Auburn High was the election of B team cheerleaders. Gloria Crain and Marcia Tucker were chosen to fill these positions. The sophomore representative for Homecoming was Mona Ouer.

The boys of the class were a great asset in the athletic department. Those who put on the shoulder pads were: Paul Carper, David Long, Robert Martin, Thomas Quance, Warren Sunday, and Donald Wiley. The participants in "Hoosier Hysteria" were Paul Carper, Jon Bruce, David Long, Robert Martin, Wayne Segraves, and Donald Wiley. The starter's gun for the track meets sounded for Jerry Boren, Jon Bruce, Paul Carper, Steven DePew, Robert Detrick, Steven Fox, Dale Grogg, Robert Martin, Richard Miller, Robert Palmer, Thomas Quance, James Reed, Michael Reynolds, John Roop, Wayne Segraves, Warren Sunday, James Tague, and Donald Wiley.

Class of 1963

"School days, school days, good old golden rule days! Teachers, and students, biology; oh, how they'll soon be the death of me."

Feeling lost their first few days at Auburn High, the "frosh" soon adjusted to the daily routine of high school. Many new experiences came for these youngsters, and they were challenged by algebra equations, biology dissections, Latin and French translations, and English diagrams. New interests soon developed in Teen-Y and Plebes, formal dances, sports events, and routines for the Canteen Blackout.

The governing power fell upon Douglas Cochard, president; Bruce Goodwin, vice-president; Sharon Dice, secretary; and Kathryn Miller, treasurer. The members of the class elected Mr. Robert Voelkel, sponsor; and Mrs. DeLoss Metcalf and Mrs. John McComas, class mothers.

Highest scholastic honors went to Nancy Wiley, Douglas Cochard, Bruce Goodwin, William Rogers, Sandra Condon, Linnea Manon, and Pat Proksa.

The freshman boys chose Kathryn Miller to represent their class as attendant for this year's Homecoming.

Those who made their initial try at high school football were: Michael Allison, Larry Aschleman, James Benson, Douglas Cochard, Paul Dwyer, Arthur Garceau, Kim Gaskill, Bruce Goodwin, Howard Hanes, Harold Kessler, Shannon Lewis, Gary Mavis, Jerry McNutt, James Moore, Robert Myers, Gary Nodine, Rodney Ringler, William Schlegel, Jack Shafer, Mark Shaw, Stephen Thomas, and Donald Yarlott. Those who made up the freshman basketball team were: Douglas Cochard, Bruce Goodwin, John Jones, Harold Kessler, Gary Mavis, Jerry McNutt, James Moore, Larry Sanxter, Jack Shafer, Mark Shaw, and Donald Yarlott. The boys who put forth their efforts on the track field were: Michael Allison, Larry Aschleman, George Bell, Douglas Cochard, Arthur Garceau, Kim Gaskill, Howard Hanes, Bruce Goodwin, Harold Kessler, Shannon Lewis, David Lumm, Gary Mavis, Jerry McNutt, James Moore, Robert Myers, Rodney Ringler, Larry Sanxter, Duane Schlatter, Jack Shafer, Stephen Thomas, and Donald Yarlott.

SCHOOL LIFE

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

8—One for the money, two for the show, three to get ready, and here we go — for another year at A. H. S.! Everyone from the starry-eyed freshmen to the old and hardened seniors reported for registration, eager to begin soaking up knowledge.

10—Members of the senior class met in Alumni Gym for nomination of officers. Mr. Frank Weathers, the senior sponsor, conducted the meeting. Voting was done by secret ballot.

Those who participated in the solo twirling contest in Fort Wayne and their ratings were: Diane Gray, superior; JoAnn Elliott, superior; Ann Pasmann, fair; and Rebecca Blevins, good. In a flag solo Rebecca Blevins received a superior rating. Those in duets and their ratings were: Rosetta Blevins and Diane Gray, excellent; Rosetta Blevins and Jo Ann Elliott, excellent; Ann Pasmann and Jonnie Bullock, good; and Jama Blickenstaff and Rebecca Blevins, superior. In a flag duet Jama Blickenstaff and Rebecca Blevins placed superior. The flag quartet made up of Rosetta Blevins, Diane Gray, Jama Blickenstaff, and Rebecca Blevins received an excellent rating. The twirling corps of Helen Dilley, Diane Gray, Rebecca Blevins, Ann Pasmann, Rosetta Blevins, Jama Blickenstaff, Lana Carper, Jonnie Bullock, and Jo Ann Elliott placed superior. The girls who received superior ratings go to Indianapolis on September 24.

11—The results of the senior election were announced today. They were: president, Harve Harris; vice-president, John Pinnington; secretary, Sandra Ford; treasurer, Ned Short. Mr. Frank Weathers continues as class sponsor with Mrs. Max Brown and Mrs. Richard Davidson as class mothers.

14—The Teen-Y met to line up programs for the year and to draft volunteers to work in the fair booth.

15—The senior class voted to have an annual again this year. The different staff positions were explained to the class. The members of the class wrote down their first three choices of staff positions.

A meeting for prospective members of the Future Homemakers of America was held at the high school.

The first junior class meeting was called to order by the new president, Donald Steininger. The class voted unanimously to offer a portable television set at the DeKalb County Free Fall Fair. Mr. Phil Howard, class sponsor, appointed Helen Dilley as stand manager for the football games. Volunteers to work in the stand were also chosen.

16—Tri-Hi-Y held a business meeting to open up its year.

17—Today was election day for the Future Farmers of America. The winning candidates were: Thomas Smith, president; Don Hawver, vice-president; Dennis Hefley, secretary and David Aschleman, treasurer. The new reporter is Lanny Lung, and Ellis Baker is sentinel. Mr. Gilbert Turpin is the advisor.

18—Surprise! Due to the fact that the school is without boilers and temperatures have dropped to a new low, school was dismissed for the morning.

Hi-Y opened its season with a business meeting.

19—Our own A. H. S. twirlers brought home the honors when they won high ratings at the baton contest in Indianapolis. The ratings of the solo twirlers were: Diane Gray, superior; and Jo Ann Elliott, excellent. In a flag solo, Rebecca Blevins placed superior. The duet of Rebecca Blevins and Jama Blickenstaff placed superior. In a flag duet Rebecca Blevins and Jama Blickenstaff received superior ratings again. The corps placed excellent in state competition.

22—Seniors met in the Alumni Gym to vote on the staff for the Follies. After the class voted, Mr. Miller asked for senior boys who would like to be student Rotarians.

25—Step right up folks and see the wonder of the civilized world! Yes, this was the day school was dismissed for the DeKalb County Fall Fair. Even the freshmen and juniors who were initiated had a grand time.

29—Seniors met in the assembly to decide if they wanted a Homecoming. They voted unanimously for one. They picked the Mishawaka Penn game, October 23, as the date. October 24, Saturday, was picked as the date for the Homecoming dance.

30—Tri-Hi-Y elected Miss Mary Lou Kostielney as its sponsor.

OCTOBER

1—Senior class officers met to pick the committees for Homecoming. These committee chairmen were chosen from a list of seniors who had requested committee duty: field decorations — Marsha Fox; props—Roger Souder; field clean-up—William Hefley; dance decorations—Nancy Patrick; clean-up—Timothy Brown.

5—Yea! Rah! Team! Cheerleading tryouts were today. The lucky girls chosen were: varsity—Bonnie Muhn, Connie McCann, and Sandra Goodwin; B-team—Gloria Crain and Marcia Tucker.

At Teen-Y meeting, Mrs. Ray Ouer was chosen as club sponsor.

7—The seniors, in a frenzy to complete plans for Homecoming, decided to pay $70 for the Thunderbirds dance band and to rent Union Hall for $30.

The McKenney Junior High School Gymnasium was the setting for some brilliant action this evening when the Girls' Athletic Association began its volleyball season.

8—"Baron" Otto Schacht, a German-born singer, swayed the students and faculty of Auburn High School from laughter to tears and to reverence with his interpretation of many old and favorite songs. This was one of the best-received programs of the year.

Who were all those boys that were running around with green hands? Why, they were the new members of the Future Farmers of America that were being initiated today.

The jolly juniors were told today that due to rising inflation, class dues would have to be $12. Also, it was decided that Christmas cards would be sold by mass canvassing of the city on the night of December 11. Cathy Walter was appointed chairman of this project. Another project, the sale of pen sets, was announced; Ann Pasmann was chosen as chairman.

12—Boilers boo-boo! School is dismissed all day!

13—Some freshmen were struck with a cruel blow tonight when the fair initiations were presented at the Plebes meeting. The boys also discussed their fair project. Dues were set at $1 for the year.

14—Those who aspire to be nurses were enlightened on that career at the Tri-Hi-Y meeting by Mrs. Esther Nessel.

The officers of the Future Teachers of America met today to discuss the calendar of coming events.

19—The Teen-Y girls heard an interesting talk by Mary Manon, an X-ray technician at Souder Hospital.

20—Boys from all four classes met today to pick three underclassmen attendants for the Homecoming Queen, and the seniors chose three candidates for the Queen. The candidates are: Bonnie Muhn, Sandra Goodwin, and Dee Ann Engstrom. Attendants are: juniors—Connie McCann; sophomores—Mona Ouer; freshmen—Kathryn Miller. The Homecoming Queen was Bonnie Muhn.

Top students competed for honors in scholarship tests today.

21—Hi-Y had a very interesting business meeting tonight.

22-23—Another vacation was called for the students to break the monotony of a humdrum school week while the teachers attended Indiana State Teachers Association meetings.

26—During an assembly program today Doxne Lee and Otto Schmidt kept everyone spellbound with their gymnastic skills and clowning. Speaking of clowns, Jon "Safety First" Feagler, James Kruse, and David Long were coaxed into adding to the hilarity.

Fines were announced and paid by Plebes who did not comply with all rules of initiation at the fair. Tch! Tch!

28—Mr. Earl Notestine was the guest speaker at Tri-Hi-Y tonight. His speech was about guidance.

29—The Future Homemakers of America held an impressive ceremony for installation of their new members.

31—BOO! The goblins will get you if you don't watch out.

NOVEMBER

2—The candlelight induction ceremony was held for the new members of Teen-Y at the Canteen this evening.

3—The seniors met in the assembly to elect a contestant for the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizenship Contest. Diane Olson was selected by a secret ballot.

4—The rough and rolling Girls' Athletic Association began its two months of bowling this afternoon.

Representatives from area colleges held "classes" tonight and told students and parents what their schools have to offer.

The Auburn and Kendallville Future Teachers of America clubs held a joint meeting. The registrar of Ball State Teachers College was the guest speaker.

6—The senior class made their annual trip to Indianapolis.

7—Mr. Lamoile Ford, father of president Sandra Ford, was guest speaker of this evening's Future Teachers of America meeting.

10—The Plebes met and discussed their year's program.

11—Tri-Hi-Y held an impressive ceremony for its new officers.

12—Tonight the Future Homemakers of America girls presented a skit demonstrating different types of personalities.

The brave Future Farmers of America decided tonight to go on a camping trip—but not to Camp Cookamonga.

14—Juniors by the number, seniors by the score: Mr. Miller thought he had problems, Indiana Tech had more — as juniors and seniors from all over met there for a general career conference.

16—There was no outside speaker for this Teen-Y meeting.

17—The halls of Auburn High School were polished to a high gloss and the blackboards scrubbed to a mirror shine for the annual Back-to-School Night.

24—Two class meetings today! The seniors were given Follies questionnaires and freshmen decided on class dues.

Among other things, the Plebes voted at their meeting tonight in favor of having a ping-pong tournament.

25—The Auburn bands presented their annual Cabaret Concert in the McKenney Junior High School Gymnasium this evening.

26-27—Thanksgiving vacation—chicken or turkey?

30—Another career speaker, Mrs. Mary Ort, a beautician, spoke to Teen-Y this evening.

DECEMBER

1—Mr. Miller gave seniors questionnaires on plans for the future.

2—Mr. Phil Howard gave a speech to Hi-Y entitled "Parliamentary Procedures."

8—The Plebes held their ping pong tournament. The following boys entered: Bob Myers, Alan Staggs, Mark Shaw, John Lange, Robert Martin, Michael Reynolds, Mark Holdeman, Donald Wiley, James Barkey, Warren Sunday, Robert Detrick, and Harold Kessler. The winner was Donald Wiley. Congratulations, champion.

9—Sophomores discussed class sweaters. Sandra Christlieb was appointed the head of a class sweater committee. Gloria Crain, Patricia Shoudel, and Steven Allen are to help her.

Tri-Hi-Y girls were given hints on Christmas decorations by Mrs. Paul Freeburn and Mrs. Jean Gieser.

10—Paper ripped and ribbon flew this evening as the Future Homemakers of America held a gift exchange and Christmas party.

11—Patricia Shoudel was elected to collect money for sophomore class sweaters. For sweater colors the sophomores have chosen black with white letters.

15—Future Farmers of America decided to have the annual Father and Son Banquet on April 14.

17—Money jingled and voices raised in delight as the Christmas issue of the Devils' Journal went on sale.

18—Today some senior girls staged a Beatnik Day. They really looked the part when not in classes. Cool!

21—Mrs. Jean Gieser assisted Teen-Y in making Christmas decorations at tonight's meeting.

12—Hallelujah! This is the day before that long-awaited Christmas vacation.

26—The Tri-Hi-Y girls did a beautiful job on the decorations for the traditional Christmas formal. The theme of this extravaganza was "Frosty Elegance." The dance was held at the Union Hall this year.

31—Granddaddy Fifty-Nine proudly announced the arrival of a bouncing baby boy. Born at the stroke of midnight, this new arrival was given the name of New Year Nineteen-Sixty. It is known that certain seniors welcome this baby with delight.

JANUARY

4—School reopened. Oh joy!

Mrs. Charles Overmeyer, guest speaker at this evening's Teen-Y meeting, gave a very interesting talk on "Choice of Action."

6—The seniors were shot one by one today. Chief executioner, Mr. Skeet Weathers, gave another civics home brew.

Hi-Y held another business meeting tonight.

8—Mr. Miller beat Mr. Tipton up (he got up at 6 a.m.).

11—Auburn High School students were "patched up" today. TB patch tests were given.

The seniors held a class meeting this morning. They chose their invitations and decided for the class to donate $1 for each class member for the annual.

12—In civics classes today, the seniors had a re-vote on two invitations that had a very close vote at the class meeting yesterday.

13—The tears ran freely today as the TB patches were taken off.

The seniors had another class meeting and voted to give the annual a minimum of $100. February 15 was set as the deadline for getting the dues paid. Any dues not paid by that date will have a fine of ten per cent of the unpaid balance added to the amount due.

The juniors received the joyous news today that their class dues would be dropped to $7. Also, they voted to give the students a fifty-cent profit on pen sets sold and a thirty-cent profit on Christmas cards—and the banquet will be held at Cutter's Chalet.

Mrs. Mary Ort gave a demonstration of hair dressing to the Tri-Hi-Y girls tonight.

14—That pretty student teacher seen roaming about lately, Miss Nancy Harmon, gave a talk on "Why I Chose Home Economics" at this evening's Future Homemakers of America meeting.

The Future Farmers of America appointed the committees for their Father and Son Banquet.

The Future Teachers of America meeting was held at the high school. Mrs. Rebecca Derrow, the Riley kindergarten teacher, gave a very informative talk.

15—The freshmen pulled no kindergarten stunts today.

18—The Teen-Y heard a lively talk on "Drama," given by Mrs. Don Folk tonight at the Canteen.

The juniors began making a budget for the banquet.

20—The Hi-Y boys heard a talk on "Four Steps to Success" by Mr. Ross Tipton at their meeting tonight.

21—The juniors held another meeting to discuss pen sets.

25—The big day has finally arrived! Student teaching started today for Future Teachers of America club members.

26—Cliff West held the attention of the Plebes tonight when he gave a speech on "Guns."

27—Miss Mary C. Wood gave the girls at Tri-Hi-Y pointers on secretarial work.

30—The annual Northern Indiana Solo and Ensemble contest was held today. Eight students participated. Their ratings were: Elizabeth Clemens, superior; Sandra Rainier, excellent; Connie Wolfe, excellent; Pamela Treadwell, excellent; Jean Zelmer, good; Thomas Souder, fair; Melony Souder, excellent; and Robert Souder, excellent. Congratulations to all of you!

FEBRUARY

1—"Secretarial Training" was the topic of this evening's speaker at the Teen-Y meeting, Miss Mary Jane McKeon.

2—The seniors met today and voted on the color of their caps and gowns (if you're sentimental, cry here). Navy blue was chosen.

3—Hi-Y had a debate on capital punishment tonight. It proved to be a very interesting topic.

8—Mrs. Artella Teter gave one of her famous talks on behavior.

9—The Plebes discussed future speakers for their meetings.

10—Tri-Hi-Y heard an interesting speech on teenage marriages by the Reverend LeRoy Buuck of the Trinity Lutheran Church.

11—The Future Homemakers of America held a gay Saint Valentine's Day party tonight.

The Future Farmers of America's Father and Son Banquet committees made reports on their progress.

The Future Teachers of America members were entertained by a movie this evening at the high school.

13—Eight girls from our Girls' Athletic Association attended the Angola Playday. The trampoline and ice skating were the events.

18—Star entertainers for tonight's Founders' Day ceremony were the members of the Auburn High School Concert Choir.

Will the Hi-Y ever get tired of having business meetings? They had another one tonight, you know.

22—George Washington's birthday—why don't we have a vacation?

23—The Plebes played a wild game of basketball in the Y.M.C.A. gym tonight.

Seating arrangements were discussed at the junior class meeting. Yea! Rah! Team! A pep session was held to push our Red Devils off to the sectional with plenty of spirit.

24—Today is the deadline for the junior class dues. Pay up, kids! The seniors want to eat in style at the banquet.

Mrs. Charles Overmeyer, who is asked back every year because of her interesting talks, spoke at Tri-Hi-Y tonight.

25—Deos Immortales! Will vacation ever come?

MARCH

3—Certain persons' hearts were heard to beat very loudly today when the send-ins were read.

4—Yea! Rah! Spring Vacation. School will not reopen until Tuesday, March 8.

8—Juniors racked their brains for the National Merit Scholarship test.

Plebes discussed the possibility of a record hop to raise funds.

9—A business meeting was held tonight at Tri-Hi-Y.

10—A movie on the traits of a good teacher was shown at the Future Teachers of America meeting. Everyone enjoyed it.

The Future Homemakers of America had an active discussion on homemaking from a panel of mothers and daughters.

10—Plebes made their plans for their day at Pokagon.

11—Tri-Hi-Y held a beautiful service for the installation of new officers.

12—The final meeting of the Future Homemakers of America was a triple-decker. They held a banquet followed by the installation of next year's officers and a speech by a state trooper on "Traffic Accidents and What We Can Do to Prevent Them."

The final meeting of the Future Farmers of America ended all old business and saw to the election of next year's officers.

Sophomores met to elect a representative to attend the junior-senior banquet.

The Future Teachers of America met for the last time and the seniors' credits were checked. Three cheers for the seniors!

13—The A. H. S. band and choruses gave a fine program tonight for everyone to see at the Spring Concert.

16—At its last meeting, the Teen-Y held formal induction of new officers. The ceremony was very impressive.

28—The juniors entertained the seniors with a beautiful banquet. This year's formal "catered affair" was given at Cutter's Chalet with a dance and show. A breakfast was the final touch.

29—The Reverend George Schuette gave a moving speech at Baccalaureate. This year's ceremony was held at the McKenney Junior High School Gymnasium.

30—The whole school system is helping the seniors celebrate senior week — they have a Memorial Day vacation.

31—Tonight everyone who earned an award of some kind participated in the Awards Night. Among the outstanding awards were those given for athletics and scholarships. Possibly the award with the proudest receivers were those given for perfect attendance. These people are few and far between.

JUNE

1—The senior class of 1960 was pushed out into the cold, cruel world tonight. Commencement was beautiful and, of course, tearful as usual. Good luck, kids!

3—We wonder if Robinson Crusoe was any happier when Friday came than we are. Especially this—the last day of school.

The Follies of 1960

The time—September, twelve years ago; the place—grade school, Anywhere, U.S.A.; the occasion — our first day of grade school. It was a day of confusion and apprehension. Many of us probably wished we were at home among the familiar faces and surroundings. But as each year passed we became more accustomed to going to school each September. Now it is twelve years later and we have come to another momentous occasion in our lives—graduation. Besides all the work we had to undertake to reach this occasion we also had our times for play. Sports activities, our junior-senior banquets, the junior-senior plays, and many other moments are all moments that we will treasure for years to come. By presenting The Follies of 1960 to you we hope to help you remember these moments.

One of the first items on the agenda of the senior class was to decide if we wanted to sponsor an annual. We decided unanimously to sponsor one, and then class members signed up to work on the annual. The assignments were given and the months of writing, taking pictures, mounting pictures, and worrying began. Larry and Jim kept our budget balanced. Carol and Dee Ann sold advertising space to the merchants and businessmen of our community. Thanks to Harve and his salesmen, we had a very successful sales campaign. Jayne and Diane did all of the little things that are so very important. Jon was the typical camera bug. The drawings were compliments of Bill. Sandy and Joyce wrote the class activities. The organization activities were fully reviewed by Jo Ann and Janet. The dramatic side of the year was written by Joe. Bonnie and Nancy helped us recall what we had done on the various days of the past year. The laughs were contributed by Dick and Steve. Band and chorus were written by Mary. Laurie and Tim reported the sports activities. The vocational activities were noted by Cora and Charley.

Although the staff did an excellent job of writing, this book would not have been possible if we had not had the help of many other individuals and companies. First of all, our deepest thanks go to Mr. Lloyd Miller, our principal, for the countless hours he spent helping us assemble the annual. Also deserving of our thanks is Mr. Robert Love who checked and perfected our write-ups. Thanks go to Mr. Kelso Davis of the Davis Studio for doing an excellent job of taking and developing our pictures. The engraving of the pictures and art work was accomplished with the assistance of Mr. Thomas Broom of the Fort Wayne Engraving Company. Mr. Jack Bundy of the S. K. Smith Company aided us in selecting the cover we wanted. Our write-ups were transformed into print by the Auburn Printing Company. Credit for binding the book goes to the Heckman Bindery. Finally, we sincerely wish to thank the merchants and businessmen of our community for purchasing advertising space. This annual could not have been presented if they had not been so generous.

In the future you will encounter many new faces and surroundings, but the old faces and surroundings will still be in your memory. If this book brings fond memories of years gone by, then we, the Class of 1960, have attained our purpose in presenting The Follies of 1960 to you.

Hi-Y

"Now according to the new ruling . . ." This phrase might have been heard by the members of Hi-Y several times last year. The officers found a copy of the club by-laws which changed a few of the procedures used. To become a member of Hi-Y, a candidate had to receive favorable votes from at least two-thirds of the membership. The officers sincerely hoped that Hi-Y would become a better club as a result of the following this by-law.

The officers for the year were William Heffley, president; Timothy Brown, vice-president; Frederick Barkey, secretary; Thomas Slick, treasurer; Roger Souder, chaplain; and Mr. J. Robert Walter, sponsor. Mr. Harold "Snip" Snyder replaced Mr. Gene Holdeman as club advisor. "Snip" proved himself to be very helpful in the activities of the club.

Hi-Y did not have many speakers this past year. The boys were keeping fit by going to gym classes. However, the speakers they did have were excellent. "Steps to Success" was the title of the program given by Mr. Ross Tipton. Mr. Phil Howard gave the boys lessons on how to conduct a meeting by "Parliamentary Procedure." "Indian Relics" was the next interesting talk, given by Mr. Weston Walter. At one meeting the members took over and held a debate on capital punishment. The debate was informative and showed the boys many different sides to the controversial subject.

Hi-Y joined with Tri-Hi-Y and put on a record hop for the purpose of increasing their treasures. Hi-Y conducted a campaign, headed by Larry Roop, and collected funds for the March of Dimes. A blanket, held by several Hi-Y members, was passed at the Auburn-Hartford City game. The total of $62.19 included $36.81 collected at school and $25.38 collected at the basketball game.

Besides the March of Dimes, Hi-Y contributed money to the Red Cross.

Frederick Barkey and James Grosh attended the officers' training camp at Delphi last summer.

Tri-Hi-Y

This year there were seventy-eight members of the Auburn Tri-Hi-Y under the leadership of Diane Olson. Tri-Hi-Y is the girls' youth club sponsored jointly by the Young Men's Christian Association and Auburn High School to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school and community higher standards of Christian character; clean speech; clean sports; and clean scholarship. Diane was assisted by Jayne Bussell, vice-president; Judith Favinger, secretary; Marsha Osmun, treasurer; Sandra Grant, chaplain; Cynthia Walter, sergeant-at-arms; and Miss Mary Lou Kostielney, club advisor. Mrs. Jesse Baxter, the new Canteen "Mother," added her greatly appreciated services to the club.

During the DeKalb County Free Fall Fair, the beautifully decorated car on which the officers rode won a second prize. The car was donated and driven by Mr. Al Hazelton. Tri-Hi-Y, in cooperation with the other three "Y" clubs, also sold chances on a transistor radio and an electric portable typewriter.

The senior members of Tri-Hi-Y helped serve the luncheons during the fund drive for the "Y". This is a service which the girls have carried on for many years and hope to continue.

The regular meetings for the club were on the second and fourth Wednesdays of every month. The first guest speaker was Mrs. Esther Nessel. Mrs. Nessel gave a very interesting and informative talk on the nursing profession. Next, Mr. Earl Notestine gave a speech on teaching and guidance. The last guests before Christmas were Mrs. William Geiser and Mrs. Paul Freeburn. They gave instructions on home decorations for Christmas. Later in the evening Mrs. William Husselman played carols inviting the girls to join in while working.

Other speakers during the year included Mrs. Mary Ort, who told about the beauty colleges; Miss Mary Catherine Wood, who gave advice on becoming a secretary; and Mrs. Ross Tipton, who told how to give a tea.

Tri-Hi-Y has generously contributed to such charities as the World Service, Wee Haven School, March of Dimes, and the Red Cross.

Diane Olson and Judith Favinger were the two officers that attended the State "Y" Camp at Delphi last summer.

Plebes

The Auburn Plebes is one of the many clubs affiliated with the national Young Men's Christian Association. This club was organized during the school year of 1956-57 for freshman boys and is, in effect, a junior Hi-Y Club; but the name "Plebes" was chosen to mark it as an organization for underclassmen and to avoid confusion with the Hi-Y. In 1958 the club was joined by sophomore boys. Boys have the opportunity to belong to two "Y" clubs just as girls do.

The officers who presided over the club during the year were: Alan Staggs, president; John Roop, vice-president; Bob Detrick, secretary; David Long, treasurer; and David Cochran, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Max Thrasher was club advisor and Mr. Harold Snyder was club sponsor.

The officers kept the members busy with an active program. Late in the fall they held a ping-pong tourney. After eliminating all competition, Donald Wiley was declared the champion. The Auburn Moose Lodge gave its support by sponsoring a hay ride late in the season.

Among their many fine speakers were Mr. Clifford West, who spoke on firearms; and Dr. Perry Reynolds, who spoke on hypnotism and showed its effects.

Alan Staggs, David Long and Mark Holdeman were the three delegates who attended "Y" training camp in Delphi, Indiana. Here they were given instructions which helped them later in planning their own club meetings.

In the spring, a joint meeting was held with Teen-Y. Both clubs enjoyed the meeting very much.

At the last meeting of the year, the officers elected for the 1960-61 school year were installed.

A camping trip at Pokagon State Park is planned for this coming summer. It will add the finishing touch to a well-rounded year of activities and will complete the final duties of the old officers.

Teen-Y

Teen-Y is an organization composed of freshman and sophomore girls. Their purpose is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school and community, higher standards of Christian character."

Each girl strives hard to fulfill this pledge. The officers took the second word of the pledge and planned a whole year's program around it. They invited speakers to come and talk on their professions, thus creating in each girl's mind ideas for careers.

Some of their fine speakers were: Miss Mary Manon, an X-ray technician; Mrs. R. Ort, a beautician; Mrs. C. F. Davidson, an airline stewardess; and Miss Mary Jane McKeon, a secretary.

During the summer of 1959 the two highest officers, Jayne Hamilton and Barbara Knauer, spent one week at camp in Delphi, Indiana. There they heard many things about club work which have helped them during the past year.

At the DeKalb County Free Fall Fair, their decorated car won first prize.

A very impressive candle-light induction service was held for the new members in the fall.

The club was guided by six capable sophomore girls: Jayne Hamilton, president; Barbara Knauer, vice-president; Susan Harpster, secretary; Diane Gray, treasurer; Elizabeth Clemens, chaplain; and Jacqueline Rathert, sergeant-at-arms. The sponsor was Mrs. Jesse Baxter.

The Teen-Y girls worked hard during the year to build up their funds. They sponsored the annual Sadie Hawkins Day Dance and helped the Canteen raise money at the fair booth. This money was used to help many worthy organizations and projects, such as Wee Haven, World Service, CARE, refugee adoption, Christmas fund; and to send two of next year's officers to training camp.

Teen-Y held installation of new officers on May 2, 1960.

Through their many activities, they are teaching each girl to carry responsibility and do her part. They are creating the citizens of tomorrow.

The Auburn High School Band

The 1959-1960 Auburn High School Band was under the efficient direction of Mr. Richard Norris. This year the band elected as its officers: Lawrence Beuret, president; Thomas Tipton, vice-president; Rebecca Blevins, secretary; and Ann Pasmann, treasurer. The band organized a governing board composed of the officers and two elected representatives from each class for the purpose of helping to govern the band. Members of the board were Mary Shook, Helen Ann Dilley, John Shoudel, Diane Gray, Gloria Bassett, Jonnie Marie Bullock, and David Lumm. Rebecca Blevins and Diane Gray, who served as head majorettes, led the marching band. Ann Pasmann was the feature twirler. The band entertained at football and basketball games and participated in parades, concerts and contests.

An outstanding development of the year was the completion of the new band room. This room was built exclusively for music and has been sound treated to obtain the best acoustical effects. Included in with the band room are practice rooms, an office, and a room for repairing instruments.

The Auburn High School Band took part in the DeKalb County Free Fall Fair. In the Grand Finale Parade on Saturday the band received a second place in class A. The band then began preparing for the Northern Indiana School Band, Orchestra, and Vocal Association Marching Contest, which was held in Fort Wayne on October 10. An excellent rating was received.

The corps of twirlers, including Rebecca Blevins, Diane Gray, Helen Ann Dilley, Jonnie Marie Bullock, Lana Carper, Ann Pasmann, Rosetta Blevins, Jo Ann Elliot, and Jama Blickenstaff, won an excellent rating in the state twirling contest.

In November, the Auburn High School Band presented its Cabaret Concert at McKenney Junior High School.

On February 6, Mary Wilson, Linda Cutter, Diane Davis, and Judith Kruse received superior ratings on their solos in the Northern Indiana School Band, Orchestra, and Vocal Association Solo and Ensemble Contest. A mixed clarinet quartet consisting of Mary Wilson, Judith Herbolzheimer, Sandra Rainier, and Georgia Bailey also achieved the chance to compete in the state contest. Judith Kruse received a superior rating for her solo at the state contest. The other band members competing in the contests should also be commended for their efforts.

On April 2, the band took part in the District Band, Orchestra, and Vocal Contest held at Columbia City.

Booster Club

Eight years ago the task of selling refreshments at the basketball games became too large for the Future Homemakers of America to handle. Mr. Lloyd Miller, principal, suggested that a club should be organized to carry out this function, and that is how the Booster Club came into existence.

This year's manager, Jane Platter, along with the supervisor, Mr. Miller, kept the club running in smooth order. The members sold candy, popcorn, potato chips, and ice cream at the basketball games.

The money which this club earns is used to present assembly programs for the student body during the school year. These programs are obtained through the School Assembly Service of Chicago, Illinois, and the Antrim Bureau of Glenside, Pennsylvania.

Students and faculty in Auburn High School are presented with educational, unusual, and highly entertaining programs. Among this year's fine programs were: Mr. Otto Schacht, who explained how important it is to do one's best; Doxne Lee and Otto Schmitt, who entertained with their talent as a gymnastic team; and Dr. Kurt Singer, who emphasized how important it is to work hard in order to keep America strong as a world leader. These were just a few of the programs.

Each Booster Club member receives an award for his faithful service. First year members receive a letter "A" with "Booster" written on it; second year members receive a bronze pin; and a silver pin is awarded to third year members. There has been only one four-year award, a gold pin, since the club was organized in 1953.

The students and basketball fans are grateful to the Booster Club for its efforts and faithfulness. Each of the members puts in much of his own time and energy, working toward a successful club and contributing at the same time to a better high school life for all.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of America Club was chartered six years ago in 1954. The club was named the Robert Schooley Chapter in honor of an outstanding former teacher at Auburn High School. The club belongs to the state and national Future Teachers of America organizations.

The members are juniors and seniors who are interested in becoming teachers. They hold meetings once a month at the high school under the supervision of Mrs. Marcelle Voss, this year's sponsor.

The officers elected to serve for the 1959-60 school year were: Sandra Ford, president; Jo Ann Sockrider, vice-president; Ann Pasmann, secretary; Sandra Grant, treasurer; Marsha Osmun, librarian; Cora Cochran, parliamentarian; Kalene Axtell, historian; and Carolyn Boren, song leader.

During the year a joint meeting was held with Kendallville. The speaker was Dr. Leo Hauptman, the registrar at Ball State, who spoke on the advantages of a college education.

The programs for the year were not only informative but also interesting. Mr. Lamoile Ford spoke on becoming a teacher; Mr. Ross Tipton pointed out good traits of a teacher; and Mrs. Rebecca Derrow explained the daily routine of a kindergarten teacher. Several movies relating to the teaching profession were also presented.

Throughout the second semester, the members each taught in one of the elementary grades for an hour each week. Perhaps they would prepare a lesson, grade papers, or just observe the teacher in action.

In the spring several members attended a tea held in Angola. It was sponsored by the Delta Kappa Gamma sorority, an organization composed of women teachers.

At the end of the school year, each member was presented with a certificate stating the numbers of points he has earned in F.T.A. These points are transferable to college F.T.A. clubs. Points may be earned by one hour of service, such as assisting the teachers and parent-teacher groups, by ushering, or by appearing in programs.

Librarians

At one time or another, every student of Auburn High School has had occasion to use the school's library. Everyone has, no doubt, found the library complete enough for the usual business of research. However, because of the fact that the public library is near by and has extensive reading material, not too many fiction books are in the library.

A new file has been added to the library for the purpose of housing and dispensing dictation discs for the shorthand students. Many students have found this file most helpful. The magazine rack was moved to a new location on the south side of the study hall to make room for more reference books. The books on this rack were selected to satisfy all kinds of readers. The magazines range from Good Housekeeping to Seventeen for the girls and from Sports Illustrated to Scientific American for the boys.

The reference books in the library include several sets of encyclopedias and several unabridged dictionaries. For the student looking up author information, several books on authors are provided. The library is also equipped with atlases, almanacs, and daily newspapers. These papers are kept on file for future reference.

The student librarians were placed in the study hall mainly to check books and other materials in and out of the library. They also shelved books that were returned. The librarians this year were Margaret Jennings, first period; Kathleen Boger, second period; Marsha Fox and Shirley Kettles, third period; Kalene Axtell, fourth period; Sharon Nagle, fifth period; and Mary Shook and Judith Kay Miller, sixth period. These girls did a splendid job in helping the students find the proper books.

This year, as last, Mrs. Doris Simpson was school librarian. She was always ready and eager to help any student or teacher find his reference material. It was her responsibility to make the books available to the student. As usual, she was most cooperative. During the second semester Mrs. Simpson alphabetized all the magazines on the shelves in front of the study hall. She was also in the process of arranging the card catalogue and a vertical file for pamphlets. All the students owe Mrs. Simpson a sincere vote of thanks for her work in the school library.

Future Farmers of America

The purpose of the Future Farmers of America is to extend better understanding, leadership, and agriculture throughout the community. The club's colors are sky blue and sunflower yellow. The Auburn chapter is composed of twenty-nine members, with Mr. Gilbert Turpin as the adviser.

Meetings were held the second Thursday of every month at the Auburn High School agriculture room. After each meeting recreation was held in the school gym.

The club's projects undertaken this year were a pest contest and the farming of a ten acre plot. The ten acre plot of ground is located northeast of Auburn. The club put out corn and harvested a very good crop. The land is owned by the School City of Auburn. The pest contest involved all F.F.A. members. Each member tried to see who could kill the most farm pests during the school year. Each member was allowed so many points for each kind of pest killed. For instance, a mouse was five points; a rat, ten points, a red squirrel, ten points; a fox, two hundred points; and a pigeon, ten points. As proof of having killed a pest, the members had to bring in the heads of some and the tails of others. Boys with the most points at the end of the year were exempted from paying a fine. The losers of the pest contest also sponsored a successful father and son banquet. This was the last meeting of the year.

The officers for the year were: Thomas Smith, president; Don Hawver, vice-president; Dennis Heffley, secretary; David Aschleman, treasurer; Roger Schlatter, special events; and Lanny Lung, reporter.

The F.F.A. boys who received green hand degrees for their first year of agriculture were: Philip Allison, Clarence Baysinger, Marion Carper, Jerry Lemper, Duane Schlatter, Kenneth Riccius, and Roddy Werner.

This year there were four candidates for Hoosier Farmer degrees: David Aschleman, Lyle Kneubuhler, Thomas Smith, and Don Hawver.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization of high school girls working toward better home, family, and community life for all. The club colors are red and white, the club flower is red rose, and the theme this year was "Blueprint for Living."

The theme was carried out by a talk on home economics by Miss Nancy Harman, a student teacher from Ball State Teachers College; a demonstration of beauty tips by a student from Warner Beauty College; a skit on different types of people; and a talk on "Teenagers and Safety."

This year the club had its highest enrollment: forty-three members. The chosen officers for this year were: Diana McNeece, president; Linda Webb, vice-president; Kathleen Beuret, secretary; Margaret Jennings, treasurer; Barbara Thomas, parliamentarian; Janet Baysinger, historian; Kathy Krumma, song leader; Barbara Calvin, reporter; Jeanette Bussell, project chairman; Mrs. Larry Stomm, sponsor; and Mrs. Omar Webb and Mrs. Robert McNeece, club mothers.

The club's extra activities were a float in the DeKalb County Free Fall Fair Parade (third prize); a Christmas party and gift exchange; co-sponsorship of a record hop with the Future Farmers of America; the attending of district and state meetings; and a formal banquet and installation of new officers.

In order to be eligible for an office in the organization for next year, the girls were required to sell seven dollars worth of goods. Some of the articles sold were candy, ironing board covers, knives, measuring cups and spoons, oven mitts, oven savers, and dampening bags.

The Penny Mile was continued this year for Wee Haven School. Other charitable projects were decorated Easter eggs given to the hospital patients and Christmas caroling at hospitals and old folks' homes.

This year April 3-9 was chosen as F.H.A. Week. The club had special activities for this week which included making posters announcing F.H.A. Week and sending CARE packages overseas. F.H.A. girls wore F.H.A. pins the whole week.

Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club is composed of all students who have earned a letter in one of the following activities: football, basketball, track, golf, yell leading, and all student managers.

Letters were presented to these football players: David Aschleman, David Bard, Timothy Brown, Paul Carper, Dale Cochard, Lee Emerson, Jon Feagler, Michael Frownfelter, Joseph Garceau, John Gaskill, Stanley Knisely, Donald Lemish, David Long, Robert Martin, Michael McKinley, Richard Moore, Thomas Quance, James Reas, Ned Short, John Shoudel, Thomas Smith, Donald Steininger, Warren Sunday, Ronald Tarlton, Kim Webb, and Donald Wiley.

Silver footballs were presented to these senior boys: Joseph Garceau, Jon Feagler, Richard Moore, Timothy Brown, Ned Short, Michael Frownfelter, and Dale Cochard. Roger Souder was student manager.

Eleven boys received letters in basketball. They were Dale Cochard, Jon Bruce, John Gaskill, Robert King, David Long, Wayne Seagraves, Robert Martin, Michael McKinley, Thomas Smith, Stephen Wildermuth, and Donald Wiley.

Senior awards were presented to Dale Cochard, Steven Davidson, Jon Feagler, Richard Moore, Ned Short, Thomas Slick, and Roger Souder.

The varsity cheerleaders who received a letter were Sandra Goodwin, Bonnie Muhn, and Connie McCann. The students of A.H.S. also elected two B team cheerleaders to represent them at the home games. They were Gloria Crain and Marcia Tucker.

During the school year of 1958-59, a golf team was organized after a lapse of several years. The team was coached by Mr. Ross Tipton. The boys who received a letter in this field were Jack Cook, Charles Laurie, David Long, Eric Rieke, and Preston Stackhouse.

Letters were awarded to the following boys in track, during the school year of 1958-59: Lee Allison, Timothy Brown, Paul Carper, Dale Cochard, Charles Croy, Steven Davidson, James Detrick, Jon Feagler, Clifton Gustafson, Arkie Haiflich, James Jackson, Stanley Knisely, Charles Laurie, Eugene Link, Abe Ochstein, John Pinnington, Eric Rieke, John Roop, Roger Souder, Preston Stackhouse, Ronald Thomas, and Kenneth Webb.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association is a club for girls who have a great interest in sports of all types.

These girls played volleyball during October, November, and December in the McKenney Junior High School gymnasium. These girls also bowled during November and December, played basketball during February and March, swam at the Y.M.C.A. during February and March, and played softball in the spring.

The girls also played badminton, shuffleboard, tennis, and archery. The girls pitch horseshoes, do tumbling, dance, roller and ice skate, and go on bicycling and walking hikes.

As the girls accumulate points for the above activities, they receive awards. When a girl has 50 points to her credit, she receives a membership shield; for 100 points, a school wall plaque; for 150 points, a letter; for 250 points, a sweater; and for 350 points, a state award of a wall plaque.

The girls who received one of these awards this year were Karen Brill, Charlene Smith, Nancy Wiley, Marie Johnson, Helen Dilley, Janet Walters, Susan Van Horne, Cathy Walter, Connie Tuttle, Mary Ellen McCarthy, Carolyn Boren, Nancy Tuttle, Lana Carper, Sandra Condon, Rose Peckhart, Linnea Manon, Sharene Stouder, Alice Kinsey, and Rebecca Blevins.

A number of girls participated in playdays, which are the gathering of the girls from several schools to compete with one another in the different sports. Sometimes a trophy was awarded the winner.

Some of the girls of the Auburn G.A.A. attended two playdays. These were the ones held at Lafayette on February 6 on the Purdue University campus and the one held at Angola on February 13.

The officers of this year's G.A.A. were Mary Ellen McCarthy, president; Karen Brill, vice-president; Rebecca Blevins, secretary; and Alice Kinsey, treasurer. Miss Mary Lou Kostielney was the club sponsor.

Devils' Journal

Every two weeks at Auburn High School, arms, nickels, and papers can be seen flying every which way. Any student knows the the Devils' Journal has just gone on sale. For the past twelve years the Journal has cost each student just five cents.

The major staff for 1959-1960 included Joseph Garceau, who ably served as editor-in-chief; Ann Pasmann, associate editor; Sandra Goodwin, business manager; and Joyce Grosh, exchange secretary. Those who worked on the minor staff were head printer, Harve Harris, assisted by Dixielee Rolf and Marsha Fox; head artist, Diane Davis; personalities, Jeanette Thorpe and Nancy Patrick; mystery personality, Marsha Fox; Devils' Hash, Sharon Nagle; fads and fashions, Cynthia Walter; Tom's Fooleries, Thomas Tipton; Poor Dave's Almanac, David Brandon; Nuts and Bolts, Timothy Brown and Richard Moore; sports editor, Dale Cochard; Deviltry, Marsha Osmun with class editors Judith Haynes, Sheryl Brown, and Betty Mauk; head assembler, Susan Harpster; and head typists, Dee Ann Engstrom and Jo Ann Sockrider.

For the second consecutive year the Devils' Journal has been sponsored by Mr. Robert Love. His welcome advice was gratefully accepted by the entire staff.

Editor Garceau put in many ideas that made the paper more popular and more interesting. Many new columns were added. Tom's Fooleries provided a good laugh for anyone that was "down in the dumps" or wanted to know the latest news about the "beatniks." Carolyn Connor's jokes tickled many a reader's funny-bone. The cartoon on the editor's page was just added this year, also.

Clearer print and the use of headlines gave a professional touch to the Devils' Journal. We are proud to say that the Devils' Journal was exchanged with more than twenty other schools in this area.

Why The Chimes Rang

The 1959 Christmas play, Why the Chimes Rang, was a drama by Elizabeth McFadden in one act presented by the junior-senior speech classes. The intention of the play was to show that the size of a gift to God has nothing to do with a man's spiritual reward.

Near a cathedral town on the edge of a forest in the dusk of a day long ago was a small peasant's hut. In this dwelling lived Holger (William Heffley), a peasant boy, and his younger brother, Steen (Philip Woodcox). Since it was Christmas time, all the people of the countryside had been pouring into the town to attend midnight services at the cathedral, that is, all except the brothers. They could not attend worship because their parents had gone to visit sick relatives and had left the boys to take care of the home.

The scene was immediately enlivened by the visitation of Uncle Bertal (Thomas Tipton). Then, as Steen, Holger, and Uncle Bertal gazed out the window toward the town, Uncle Bertal related the story of the miracle of the chimes. This miracle happened when the perfect gift at the altar of the great cathedral caused the church chimes to ring by saintly means.

During the telling of the story an old woman (Sandra Ford) had entered unnoticed bringing with her a heavenly air. Then, after her entrance, a vision began to form in a corner of the hut. The vision was one of the cathedral chancel and a kneeling priest (Harve Harris) accepting many fabulous gifts from pilgrims. These pilgrims were a rich woman (Susan Van Horne), a beautiful woman (Judith Favinger), an old woman (Doris McNamara), a young girl (Rosetta Blevins), and the king (Robert Souder). None of these persons' priceless offerings were accepted as the perfect gift.

Holger, overcome with excitement, timidly went forward and laid his humble gift, several copper pennies, on the chancel. Immediately the organ music stopped, and the chimes began to ring. An angel of the Lord (Mary Shook) appeared praising God. The miracle had happened!

As the vision faded away and the old woman vanished, Holger began to realize what the true gift was as only God sees it.

A special thanks goes to Mrs. Marcelle Voss and the high school choir who gave beauty and inspiration to the play by their singing in the background. Mr. Richard Norris and members of the band also provided special background music. Mr. Phil Howard was director for the entire production.

Girls' Chorus

Mrs. Wayne Voss, a graduate of Indiana Central College, has done a wonderful job reorganizing the chorus her first year as Auburn High School. The 1959-1960 chorus has been laying ground work for the future. Several new groups have been organized including a Boys' Glee Club, which met twice a week during the activity period. A special concert choir was formed from the Boys' Glee Club and the Girls' Chorus. The members of this special group were chosen for the best balance of voices and for the best tone quality.

Connie Wolfe, Elizabeth Clemens, Marie Johnson and Sandra Doden formed a girls' barbershop quartet to entertain for civic groups. They dressed formally and sang popular numbers.

The Starliners, a group of six girls and eleven boys, sang for the Renner's Express Company Christmas party. The members of this group were Connie Wolfe, Elizabeth Clemens, Sandra Doden, Kathleen Beuret, Pamela Treadwell, Marie Johnson, Joseph Garceau, Dale Cochard, Ned Short, Timothy Brown, Thomas Smith, Thomas Quance, Paul Carper, Warren Sunday, Steven Olson, Arthur Garceau, and Lawrence Sanxter. Carol Moser acted as their accompanist.

On January 12, the complete combined Girls' Chorus and the Boys' Glee Club sang for the College Night, a Parent-Teachers Association meeting at Auburn High School. Elizabeth Clemens and Melony Souder sang solos for the January 21 Parent-Teachers Association meeting at Riley Grade School.

Eight chorus students entered the northern Indiana Solo and Ensemble contest at Central High School in Fort Wayne January 30. Those entered were Elizabeth Clemens, who received a superior rating, Sandra Rainier, Melony Souder, Robert Souder, Thomas Souder, Pamela Treadwell, Connie Wolfe and Jean Zelmer.

The Founder's Day Program, February 18, which took place at McKenney Junior High School, was entertained by the Barbershop Quartet and the Concert Choir.

Officers elected for the Chorus this year were: Sandra Doden, president; Charlene Smith, vice-president; Kathleen Beuret, secretary; Jeanette Alwood, treasurer; Judith McSorley, librarian; Marie Johnson, honor point recorder; Pamela Treadwell, reporter; Nancy Thomas, librarian; Connie Wolfe, assistant librarian; and Jane Platter, podium manager.

Boys' Chorus

For the first time since 1940, the boys of Auburn High School have organized the Boys' Chorus. This is an organization of boys from all the classes under the direction of Mrs. Marcelle Vos. They practiced on Monday and Thursday of every week during the home room period. Although the practice time was short, the boys turned out excellent programs.

In the early part of the year, eight boys were selected to sing in a group called the "Starliners." These included Ned Short, Dale Cochard, Joseph Garceau, Warren Sunday, Arthur Garceau, Steven Olson, Lawrence Sanxter, Thomas Quance, Thomas Smith, and Paul West. Marie Johnson, Sandra Doden, Connie Wolfe, Elizabeth Clemens, Kathleen Beuret, and Pamela Treadwell joined the group from the Girls' Chorus. They sang for several Parent-Teacher Association meetings during the year. For the Christmas program, the whole chorus sang Christmas carols with the "Starliners" as a special attraction.

The chorus worked hard at preparing the fine program for the Spring Concert. The boys wish to express their deepest gratitude to Mrs. Voss who gave much of her time to the development of their voices.

It is interesting to note that the boys and girls prepared their parts separately. After each group had perfected its part, the two choruses were combined with amazing success.

When asked what their favorite songs were, the boys selected "Cindy," "Climbin' Up the Mountain," "Ol' Man River," and "Battle Hymn of the Republic." The pianists for the Boys' Chorus were Connie Wolfe and Carol Moser.

Looking to the future, Mrs. Voss has chosen a smaller group of boys and girls from the entire practice groups for concert work. They plan to sing for service clubs, churches, and whoever might ask them. They would like to buy choir robes for their public appearances as soon as possible. They are striving to become skilled and interesting enough so that they will be much in demand for programs in our community and surrounding communities.

Football 1959

A group of sixty-eight boys turned out to greet the new head football coach, Charles Johnson. Coach Johnson had fifteen returning lettermen and looked forward to a fair season.

The Auburn Red Devils traveled to Decatur for their first game and victory of the season. The Red Devils downed the Yellow Jackets 14 to 0. The Red and Black had an uphill fight and did not score until late in the fourth quarter. Jon Feagler scored the first touchdown and John Gaskill scored the second. Thomas Smith kicked both extra points.

The Bluffton Tigers were the Red Devils' next victims. Auburn scored early in the game on a sixty-seven yard march capped off with a twelve-yard roll-out by Michael McKinley. The Devils put up a stout defense to hold the Tigers scoreless throughout the game. Auburn's secondary intercepted a number of Tiger passes to aid the cause. The game ended without further scoring, 6 to 0 in favor of the Red Devils.

The Auburn Red Devils, minus eleven seniors, made it three wins in a row by defeating the Angola Hornet underclassmen 13 to 0. Ronald Tarlton scored the first Auburn touchdown on an Angola fumble. Thomas Smith, although injured early in the game, kicked the extra point. The second touchdown was scored by John Gaskill on a thirteen yard sweep. Angola never threatened very successfully and failed to score.

Traveling to Nappanee, the Red Devils received their first defeat from the speedy Bulldogs. Speedy Bulldog back Jay Stouder led Nappanee with four touchdowns as they trounced the Red Devils 33 to 0. Auburn suffered some minor injuries along with their stinging defeat. The Red and Black completed some long passes late in the game but got only as far as the two yard line as the game ended.

Auburn traveled to Kendallville where the Comets handed the Red Devils their second loss. The Comets outcharged the Red Devils and defeated them 20 to 0. The Red and Black had one drive going late in the game, but it ended when Ned Short was injured on a pass play. The Red Devils got many breaks but failed to score.

After spotting the Hartford City Airedales two touchdowns in the first stanza, the Red Devils came back with one tally but failed to get the other touchdown necessary for the win. The Airedales won 13 to 6. Auburn's lone touchdown came in the second period when Dale Cochard went over from the six yard line. In the second half Auburn held the Airedales scoreless but failed to score themselves.

The Auburn Red Devils were downed by the Warsaw Tigers 45 to 7. The Tigers were larger and faster, and the Red Devils were soon trailing. The Auburn team threatened many times but lost the ball on fumbles. John Gaskill scored all seven of the Red Devils' points.

The Mishawaka Penn Kingsmen come to Earl Carr Memorial Field for the Red Devils' homecoming. The Penn team handed the Red Devils a 32 to 0 setback on a rain-soaked field. The Kingsmen scored in the opening minutes of the game, but the Red Devils came right back with a drive to the one and one-half yard line but they failed to score. Mishawaka Penn took over and went the full length of the field for their second score. The Red Devils never seriously threatened throughout the remainder of the game while Penn scored three more touchdowns.

Auburn was host to the Garrett Railroaders for the final Red Devil game. The Railroaders were favored to win but had a hard time doing so as the Red Devils were "fired up" and put up a strong fight before being defeated 28 to 6. The Auburn lads were up against a strong team but played a magnificent game to finish the season. The Red Devils' lone touchdown came in the final stanza after Timothy Brown intercepted one of Carson Culler's passes and ran back to the six yard line. From there Donald Wiley threw a pass to Michael McKinley in the end zone for the score.

The Auburn reserves, coached by George R. Stephens and Robert Voelkel, won two out of six games. Their four losses were their first four games. Concordia won 42 to 0 over the reserves in the first game. The second game was won by Angola 7 to 6. The Auburn reserves lost their third to Kendallville 21 to 6 and their fourth to Garrett 6 to 0. The reserves' first win came in a return match with Angola, 12 to 0. Auburn got revenge on the Kendallville reserves by beating them 20 to 0 in a return engagement.

The following senior boys also received silver footballs: Timothy Brown, Dale Cochard, Jon Feagler, Michael Frownfelter, Joseph Garceau, Richard Moore and Ned Short.

Basketball 1959-1960

The new head basketball coach, George R. "Bob" Stephens, was greeted by a group of thirty-five candidates for the 1959-60 Red Devil basketball team. There were five returning lettermen.

Auburn was defeated in its first outing by the Peru Tigers 71-56. The Red Devils played good ball the first half but fell behind in the third quarter. Michael McKinley was high for the Devils with 18 points.

The Red Devils gained their first win by beating the Butler Windmills 70-66. The game was close but the Auburn team led all the way. Farmer of Butler was high point man with 26 points, while Robert King scored 22 points for Auburn.

The Auburn Red Devils made it two in a row by defeating next the Portland Panthers 55-48. The Panthers stayed close but the Red Devils led by Steven Davidson's 15 points finished ahead.

The South Side Archers of Fort Wayne handed the Red Devils a 67-51 defeat in the next game. Auburn got a bad start and the first quarter ended 19-5.

Another bad first quarter gave the Redskins of Fort Wayne North Side a 73-47 win over the Red Devils. North Side had the height and the shooters; however, Steven Davidson dropped in 17 points for Auburn.

The Garrett Railroaders caught the Devils napping and handed them their third straight loss by a score of 65-41. Michael McKinley led the Auburn scoring with 13 points.

The Red and Black were host next to the Kendallville Comets at Auburn's Alumni gym. The Comets were taller and found the range on the Devils' home court. The final score was 72-49.

The Kendallville Comets hosted a holiday tourney with Auburn, Garrett and Concordia being the other participating teams. The Red Devils gave Garrett a tough battle in the opener but lost to the Railroaders 45-36. Auburn came up against Kendallville in the consolation game and was again defeated 74-57. Concordia went back to Fort Wayne as tourney champs.

Next the Angola Hornets handed Auburn their seventh straight loss and eighth of the season by defeating the Red Devils 95-57. Powers of Angola dropped in 29 points while Michael McKinley hit 15 for Auburn.

The Berne Bears then invaded Alumni Gymnasium and handed the Red and Black a 50-39 setback. The Auburn boys played deliberate ball but the shooters on the Berne team wasted no time when they had the ball.

Traveling to Decatur the Red Devils received their next defeat at the hands of the Yellow Jackets. The Decatur team jumped to a first quarter lead of 24-9 and the Red Devils began to fight but never overcame the big lead. The Decatur lads finished strong in the last quarter with 31 points to win 82-52. There were 51 fouls called in the game which was long and rough.

The Auburn Red Devils were then host to the tall, experienced Mishawaka Cavemen who handed the Red and Black a 56-32 defeat.

The Central Tigers were the next team to defeat the Red Devils but they needed a fourth quarter rally to do it. The Tigers, over-confident because of the Red Devils' record, had a surprised look at the half as Auburn led 17-16. The Red Devils played slow, deliberate ball and threw the Central team out of step. Central led 24-21 at the third quarter and then a surge of 17 points in the final stanza gave Central a 41-25 win.

Auburn next traveled to Goshen where the Devils received their thirteenth loss of the season. A bad first half proved disastrous for the Red Devils as they trailed 26-9 at the intermission. The final score was 63-35.

The Red Devils shot better against Hartford City but the Airedales proved to be too good at the free throw line. Robert Martin was high point man for Auburn with 20 points followed by Michael McKinley with 17 points. The Auburn lads had 62 points, the Airedales 87.

The Bluffton Tigers invaded the Red Devils' home floor next for the last N.E.I.C. game. The Tigers, who were the winners of the conference, handed the Auburn squad its fifth loss in conference play. Both Robert Martin and Michael McKinley scored 16 points but Millholland tallied 21 for the Tigers in their 82-55 win.

The Red Devils had a bad first quarter against Wabash and lost their sixteenth game. Wabash led at the first stop 23-8 and upset them 74-48.

The Huntington Vikings were next host to the Auburn Red Devils and proved to be too much. Although Michael McKinley scored 14 points for the Red Devils it was not enough. The Vikings, after leading 33-15 at the half, went on to win 65-32.

For the final game of the season the Auburn Red Devils traveled to Warsaw. Auburn looked good and much improved. At half time, Auburn had Warsaw down 29-25. But Auburn fell victim to a press in the last half and lost the lead to the Tigers at the third stop 38-40. The Red Devils fought hard for the lead but trailed 51-57 at the gun.

The Auburn Red Devils were the underdogs of the Sectional and met up with the host team, Churubusco. The Eagles, led by big Jessie Yates and his 21 points, rolled over the Auburn lads 68-55. Robert King and Michael McKinley each scored 15 points for Auburn.

Those who received letters or chevrons were: Dale Cochard, Michael McKinley, Robert King, Robert Martin, John Gaskill, Thomas Smith, Jon Bruce, David Long, Wayne Segreaves, Donald Wiley, Steven Wildermuth, and Joseph Garceau, student manager.

Senior awards were presented to the following boys: Dale Cochard, Steven Davidson, Jon Feagler, Richard Moore, Ned Short, Thomas Slick, and Roger Souder.

Track 1959

A group of seventy-six boys reported to Coach J. Robert Walter for the 1959 track season. There were twelve lettermen also returning from the previous season.

The Auburn Red Devils got off to a good start by defeating the Avilla Panthers 88 to 21. The Auburn boys had four slams and collected a total of eleven blue ribbons. Abe Ochstein, taking both the 100 and 220 dashes, was the only double winner.

The Red Devils made it two in a row by beating the Angola Hornets at Earl Carr Memorial Field. Angola collected 32 points against 77 for the Auburn team. The Red Devils collected nine blue ribbons and had three slams. Bill Croy won the pole vault and high jump to be Auburn's only double winner.

The Red Devils traveled to Kendallville where the Cornets handed the Auburn team their first defeat. The Auburn thinsies were on the bottom of the 60½ to 48½ score. The Red Devils collected only four blue ribbons as they won only the high hurdles and three field events.

The Concordia Cadets came to Earl Carr Memorial Field to hand the Red Devils their second straight setback. The Cadets scored 55 points against 54 for the Red Devils. Abe Ochstein and Bill Croy were double winners for Auburn. Ochstein took the 100 and 220 dashes and Croy won the pole vault and high jump. Abe Ochstein also tied the 220 dash record of 23:8 seconds. The remainder of the Auburn squad collected three blue ribbons to make a total of seven for the meet.

The Auburn Red Devils went to the Goshen Relays as the defending champions but came home with only 24 points an dwell out of the running. Tipton won the Class B title with 46 points. Bill Croy brought home the honors for the Red Devils by winning both the pole vault and high jump.

The Auburn Red Devils were host to the Garrett Railroaders and ended up on the short end of a close 57 to 52 score. The Auburn lads collected eight blue ribbons of which two belonged to Abe Ochstein. Ochstein also broke the 220 dash record setting a new time of 23:75 seconds. A 'B' team meet, held at the same time, also resulted in a Garrett win, 66 to 43.

The Central Tigers were the next team to invade Earl Carr Memorial Field; and being the stronger of the two teams, the Tigers went home the victor. Central had 86 points to Auburn's 23. The Auburn lads were not up to par and were unable to handle the Tigers, as Central won blue ribbons in all the events except the pole vault and shot put. The Central 'B' team also defeated the Auburn 'B' team 63 to 46.

The Auburn Red Devils traveled to Kokomo to the Annual Relays. The Red Devils collected only 18½ points as the winners, Bremen, got 43 points. Bill Croy won his specialty, the pole vault, with a vault of 11 feet 11 inches, which also set a new Kokomo Relay record for that event.

The Auburn Red Devils were host to a triangular meet among the Butler Windmills, LaGrange, and the Red Devils. Auburn piled up 75 points to 32 and 30 for Butler and LaGrange, respectively. The Red Devils collected seven blue ribbons for a good finish.

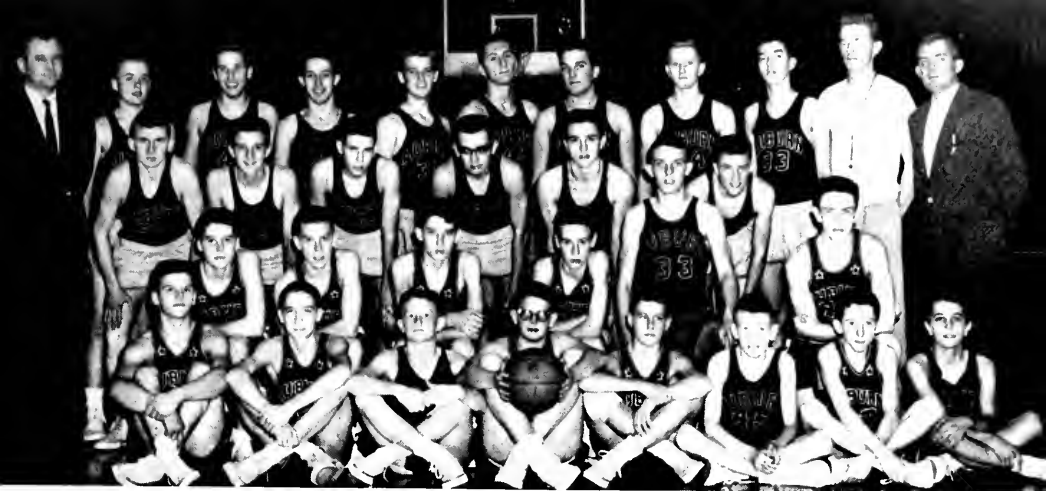

The next victim of the Red Devils was Central Catholic of Fort Wayne. The Red Devils handed the Irish a 78 to 31 defeat and won eight blue ribbons and both relays. This brought the season to a close as the Red Devils ended with four wins and four losses.

The Auburn Red Devils qualified one man for the regional track meet in the sectional track meet held at Northrop Field in Fort Wayne. Bill Croy won first place in the pole vault with a vault of 11 feet 2½ inches. The Red Devils as a team collected a total of 7 1/11 points. Bill Croy also qualified for the state meet at Indianapolis, but failed to place in that meet.

Coach Walter was pleased with the accomplishments of the Red Devils and awarded letters or chevrons to the following boys: Lee Allison, Timothy Brown, Paul Carper, Dale Cochar, Charles W. Croy, Steven Davidson, James Detrick, Jon Feagler, Clifton Gustafson, Arkie Haidlich, James Jackson, Stanley Knisely, Charles Laurie, Eugene Link, Abraham Ochstein, John Pinnington, Eric Rieke, John Roop, Preston Stackhouse, Roger Souder, Ronald Thomas, Kenneth Webb, and Richard Moore, student manager.

Silver track shoes were awarded to the following seniors: Lee Allison, Michael Crowley, Charles W. Croy, James Detrick, Roger Goodwin, Arkie Haidlich, James Jackson, Charles Laurie, Eugene Link, Robert Moore, Abraham Ochstein, Eric Rieke, Preston Stackhouse, Kenneth Webb, and James Wilmot.

Row 1: D. Schlatter, L. Sanxter, H. Kessler, G. Mavis, T. Goodwin, M. Shaw, D. Lumm, R. Meyers.

Row 2: S. Lewis, D. Cochard, J. Moore, J. Shafer, J. McNutt, D. Yarlot.

Row 3: P. Carper, C. Hoover, J. Bruce, A. Staggs, J. Boren, P. West.

Row 4: Mr. Stephens, T. Quance, S. Wildermuth, D. Wiley, R. Martin, W. Segraves, D. Long, J. Hess, G. Dunn, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Walter.

RUM RUNNERS CAPTURED!

Eliot Cress and the Unwantables Capture the Dangerous Rum Runners Gang at the Canteen

The Rum Runners Gang was finally brought to justice by Eliot Cress and the Unwantables at the Canteen. It took Cress about three hours to smoke them out of the Canteen, but he finally got the whole gang. It was a great victory for Eliot Cress, and we of the Daily Barf salute Eliot Cress for his fine performance.

Eliot first learned of the gang from Dale "I Spy" Cochard and "Sneaky" Bob Conner, two detectives on the Auburn Fuzz Force. Cress immediately rounded up his Unwantables for the battle. The Unwantables consisted of "Tiny Tim" Brown, "Muscular Mike" Frownfelter, "Jumping Joe" Garceau, John "The Terror" Pinnington, Warren Lee Wiedenhoef, and "Arizona" Roop. The Unwantables quickly assembled at the fabulous Auburn Hotel to map out the strategy.

Meanwhile the Rum Runners were planning a new job. They planned to take 40 boxes of rum soaked suckers to Garrett at midnight. Masterminding the whole affair was "Brains" Davidson. The other toughies that were going to help him out were "Terrible Tom" Slick, "Hot Rod" Brandon, "Tricky Dicky" Moore, "Sleepy" Short, and "Tiger" Wiley.

At about eight o'clock on the fateful evening the gang met at the Canteen, better known as "Jesse's Place." As soon as the gang was inside, Cress and his Unwantables searched the car. They found 40 boxes of rum soaked suckers. Now they had the evidence they needed. They quickly surrounded the Canteen. Now the battle began.

Cress called into the Canteen and said to give themselves up. "Brains" Davidson said, "Whazoo."

Cress said, "This is your last change, gangsters."

"Hot Rod" said, "Pass the church key."

Then the battle really began to get hot. Stones started flying here and there. The Unwantables could not get too close at first. But finally the stones for the gang's slingshots ran out, and the Unwantables began to move in.

At that time "Sleepy" Short and "Hot Rod" Brandon decided to spit up a little phlegm. "Terrible Tom" Slick and "Tricky Dicky" Moore were caught trying to flush themselves down the stools. "Brains" Davidson and "Tiger" Wiley gave themselves up with guns in their backs.

So that ended the gang and now there is law and order once more in Auburn. "Yea" for Eliot Cress and the Unwantables!

NEW TEAM FORMED

With the emphasis being placed on school work these days a group of energetic girls have banded together to form a new ping pong team. These girls feel as a whole the American woman is becoming soft, and they are going to do something about it. Ping pong, they feel, gives them the right kind of exercise.

There will be eight girls on this team, and they will practice in partners. The partners have been lined up as "Hot Shot" Hoodelmier and "Slamming" Sandy Ford, "Snook" Shook and "Grumbling" Grosh, "Puny" Patrick and "Toughie" Thorpe, and finally "Fluke" Favinger and "Go-Go" Goodwin. These girls will work out regularly every night until the matches. The top six girls during practice will go to the matches with the other two girls being alternates.

The team is destined to be known as Allen's Alley Cats. This name seems appropriate, and the girls seem to like the name. Of course, the girls will be expected to keep strict training rules. They must be home at 6:00 p.m. and in bed by 7:00 p.m. every week night. On the weekends they can stay out until 9:00 p.m. and must be in bed at 10:00 p.m. at their own homes. There will be no smoking, no drinking, no getting fatter, and such other things. The girls think this is very fair. As one girl said, "What do we have to lose? We don't have any dates anyway!"

As we go to press the strongest six on the team are "Hot Shot" Hoodelmier, "Slamming" Sandy Ford, "Grumbling" Grosh, "Puny" Patrick, "Toughie" Thorpe, and "Go-Go" Goodwin. They seem like the "first six" and will probably start. "Fluke" Favinger might have made it except the game was too tiring for her.

As of now there are no matches scheduled, but the team hopes to have one or two within the next five years. Every team member has high hopes for the team.

AUBURN BANK ROBBED

A daring holdup at the Auburn Bank netted a gang of robbers $10,000 in cold cash. The robbers were pursued by the Auburn Police Force for fifteen miles before the robbers ran out of gas. It is this reporter's opinion that the cops never would have gotten them if it had not been for this slight miscalculation. The holdup was well planned and well executed by the gang. One could tell that these people were no amateurs.

The robbery went something like this. At exactly 12:10 p.m. Larry Beuret, better known as "Genius" Beuret, entered the bank to make a deposit. Outside, the rest of the gang, known as the "McIntosh Maulers," waited for the signal to be given by "Genius." The rest of the gang consisted of notorious criminals of Auburn High School. At the getaway car was "Doll" Doden; at the back door were "Curly" Lange and "Frog" Souder; at the side door were "Cedric" Harris and "Clyde" Heffley; and at the front door were "Chicken" Heller and Hildegard Bussell.

After they saw the signal that was given by "Genius," "Curly" and "Frog" came through the back door. At the same time "Cedric" and "Clyde" came through the side door. About that time "Chicken" and Hildegard got scared and went to Wildermuth's for a coke. The others decided to carry on. At the time when the other gang members came through the door, "Genius" looked surprised. The gang told everyone to put their hands in the air. Then they proceeded to take every bit of money in the bank. All this time "Genius" stood there with his hands up in the air.

Everything was going smoothly with the operation. Then, all of a sudden, the alert Auburn Police Force was there at the bank. They rushed in the front door ready to shoot. "Cedric" quickly pulled "Genius" in front of him and told the cops that if they didn't want this man killed, they should throw down their guns. The Auburn cops, not wanting an innocent man to be shot, threw their guns down. The gang quickly tied them up and got the rest of the money.

They then went outside where "Doll" Doden was waiting in the getaway car. They had a little trouble getting the car moving because "Doll" couldn't shift, but finally they got underway. They took off for Fort Wayne and their hideout. The Auburn cops, being very fast, were quickly on the trail of the robbers. It was a wild and furious chase. At first Doden couldn't decide which half of the road was hers, but finally she drove on the right side.

But after about fifteen miles the gang's car ran out of gas. The cops soon caught up with them. "Genius," realizing that the game was up, tried to convince the cops that he wasn't part of the gang, but the rest of the gang proved he was, and so they took him along with them. But it was just as well that they got caught because they have to go to school tomorrow!

SHORT & WILEY TRAVEL AGENCY

"Does anyone aboard this ship know how to pray?"
"I do."

"Good, you pray. The rest of us will use the escape lungs. We're one short."

"I draw the line at kissing," she said with fiery intent, But he was a football player, so over the line he went.

Beneath this stone lies Murphy. They buried him today. He lived the "Life of Riley," while Riley was away.

"I say, Steve, your girl looked quite tempting in the Biblical gown she was wearing last night."

"What do you mean Biblical gown?"

"Oh, you know, sort of low and behold."

"Just because I have red eyes doesn't mean that I'm drunk. For all you know I might be a white rabbit."

"The editor handed herself a few minutes ago."

"Have they cut her down yet?"

"No, she isn't dead yet."

Ned: "It says here that in California last year they grew about 2,449,000 tons of grapes."

Dave: "Drink up, man, they're gaining on us."

"I've got a friend I'd like you girls to meet."

Freshman: "Is he cute?"

Sophomore: "Can he dance?"

Junior: "Does he drink?"

Senior: "Where is he?"

Then there was the girl who soaked her strapless evening gown in coffee so it would stay up all night.

The sophomore's father paid a surprise visit to his son. Arriving at 1 a.m. he banged on the fraternity house door.

A voice from the second floor yelled, "Whatdya want?"

The father said, "Does William Myers live here?" The voice answered, "Yeah, dump him on the porch."

"Oh, mama, I saw the nicest man today."

"Who was he, dear?"

"He was the garbage man, mama."

"And why was he so nice?"

"Well, he was carrying a can of garbage over his head to the wagon, and while he had it over his head the bottom came out and the garbage fell all over him, and he just stood there and talked to God."
